Mount Rushmore

No visit to the Black Hills is complete without a stop at Mount Rushmore. This iconic national memorial features the carved faces of four US presidents: George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt, and Abraham Lincoln. The sculpture is a marvel of engineering and a testament to the country's history. You can take a guided tour of the mountain, learn about the history of its creation, and enjoy the stunning views from the top.

Crazy Horse Memorial

Another must-see attraction in the Black Hills is Crazy Horse Memorial. This colossal sculpture is still under construction, but it's already an impressive sight. The memorial is dedicated to Crazy Horse, a Lakota warrior who led the resistance against the US government in the 19th century. You can take a tram tour to the base of the mountain, where you can get a close-up view of the sculpture. You can also learn about Crazy Horse's life and the history of the Lakota people.

Custer State Park

Custer State Park is a vast and beautiful park that offers a variety of family-friendly activities. You can go hiking, biking, swimming, fishing, and more. The park is also home to a variety of wildlife, including bison, elk, deer, and prairie dogs. You can take a wildlife safari tour to see the animals up close.

Badlands National Park

Badlands National Park is a unique landscape of rugged cliffs, canyons, and spires. The park is home to a variety of wildlife, including bison, prairie dogs, and bighorn sheep. You can hike, bike, or drive through the park, and there are several scenic overlooks where you can stop to enjoy the views.

Black Hills National Forest

Black Hills National Forest is a vast and beautiful forest that offers a variety of family-friendly activities. You can go hiking, biking, camping, fishing, and more. The forest is also home to a variety of wildlife, including deer, elk, and bears. You can take a guided tour of the forest, or you can explore it on your own.

Reptile Gardens

Reptile Gardens is a reptile zoo that features a variety of snakes, lizards, turtles, and crocodiles. You can take a guided tour of the zoo, or you can explore it on your own. The zoo also has a petting zoo, where kids can interact with friendly animals like goats, sheep, and rabbits.

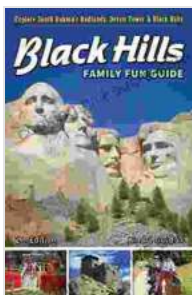

Storybook Island

Storybook Island is a children's theme park that features rides, games, and attractions based on fairy tales and classic literature. Your kids will love exploring the park and meeting their favorite characters. There are also several picnic areas where you can take a break and enjoy a meal.

The Black Hills of South Dakota offer a wealth of family-friendly fun, with something for every age and interest.
